

The Long and Short of it – Weekly Update

Week in review:

A holiday-shortened trading week with all 3 major stock market indexes relinquishing a portion of previous week's gains, each falling about 1.5%. Fed Chair Powell's testimony before Congress (Wednesday and Thursday) concretizing the Fed's ongoing fight against inflation (with Powell saying there's a long way to go) as well as introducing additional banking system stress due to poor performing commercial real estate assets was the primary reason for last week's decline. The prospect of higher rates and reduced expectations of an imminent rate cut in the face of weaker-than-expected manufacturing and services activity and continued relatively high jobless claims, also added downward pressure on index levels. While 10-year Treasury rates were slightly lower, the U.S. dollar reversed some of last week's weakening, strength just over ½ percent, reflecting renewed higher-rate sentiment. For the week, the S&P 500 Index decreased 1.4% to 4348.33, the Nasdaq Composite Index declined 1.4% to 13,492.52, the Dow Jones Industrial Average fell 1.7% to 33,728.69, the 10-year U.S. Treasury rate decreased 3bps to 3.74% and the U.S. dollar (as measured by the ICE U.S. Dollar index – DXY) strengthened 0.6%.

European stock indexes moved markedly lower last week, falling nearly twice as much as U.S. indexes. European markets moved lower early last week, reacting to hawkish testimony by Fed Chair Powell, a smaller-than-expected Chinese rate cut and a larger-than-expected UK inflation release. Thursday's surprise ½ point BoE rate increase set the tone Thursday and Friday with the FTSE 100 and STOXX 600 Indexes falling close to 1% over those two days. Luxury, financial, mining and energy stocks fared the worst last week, performing poorly on increased concerns of central bank induced demand destruction. Perhaps reflecting slow-growth/recession concerns, both 10-year Gilt and Bund rates fell about 10bps while both the euro and British pound weakened relative to the U.S. dollar. For the week, the STOXX 600 Index fell 2.9% to 453.14, the FTSE 100 Index dropped 2.4% to 7,461.87, the 10-year Gilt rate decreased 9bps to 4.32%, the 10-year Bund rate fell 10bps to 2.36% and the British pound and euro weakened 0.8% and 0.4%, respectively, both with respect to the U.S. dollar.

This document is not intended for distribution to any other country where such distribution or use would be contrary to local law or regulation. Specifically, this document is not intended for general distribution in the United States or Canada.

Investing in financial markets involves a substantial degree of risk. Nothing described herein is intended to imply that an investment is “safe”, “conservative”, “risk free” or “risk averse”. This document does not consider the specific investment objective, financial situation or particular needs of any potential investor and is intended only for those investors who are capable of understanding the risk of loss of all or a substantial part of their monies. Potential investors in the UK are reminded that they will not benefit from the UK investors compensation scheme.

No recommendation is made positive or otherwise, regarding individual securities or investments mentioned herein. Any summary list of risk factors does not purport to be a complete enumeration or explanation of the risks involved in an investment in short and leveraged products. Prospective investors must consult with their own legal, tax and financial advisers before deciding to invest.

Risk Factors

An investment in a GraniteShares short and leveraged exchange traded product (“ETP”) may not be suitable for all investors. They are intended for investors who wish to take a very short-term view on the underlying asset and are not intended as buy and hold investments.

Performance and capital loss: Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results. The value of an investment may go down as well as up and can result in losses, up to and including a total loss of the amount initially invested.

Generic risks: Investments in ETPs involve numerous risks including, among others, company risks, general market risks, credit risks, foreign exchange risks, interest rate risks, geopolitical risks and liquidity risks.

Specific product risks: The Index is constructed to track the performance of an increased (leveraged) and/or short exposure to the underlying asset. A fall (or rise where short and leveraged exposure) in value of the underlying asset can result in a greater reduction in the level of the Index. The Index is designed to do this on a daily basis only which should not be equated with seeking a leveraged position for periods longer than a day. The ETP’s performance over periods longer than one day will not be correlated or symmetrical with the returns of the underlying asset. Potential investors should refer to the section entitled “Risk Factors” and “Economic Overview of the ETP Securities” in the Prospectus relating to the GraniteShares ETPs for further details of these and other risks associated with an investment in short and leveraged ETPs and consult their financial advisers as needed.

Counterparty risk: An investment in a GraniteShares short and leveraged ETP involves counterparty risk. GraniteShares Financial plc has entered into a Swap Agreement with a counterparty, Natixis, that is backed with collateral. Failure of the counterparty to make payments may result in an investment in an ETP suffering a loss.
