

The Long and Short of it – Weekly Update

Week in review:

Stock markets moved lower last week with the Nasdaq Composite Index registering the steepest decline versus the S&P 500 Index and the Dow Jones Industrial Average. Concerns of “higher-rates-for-longer” clouded investor outlooks, propelled by lower-than-expected initial jobless claims and a stronger-than-expected ISM Services Index release. Higher oil prices in front of next week’s CPI release added to concerns, increasing expectations of higher-than-desired inflation. Reflecting these concerns, the dollar continued to strengthen and 10-year Treasury rates rose powered by a rise in 10-year inflation expectations. For the week, the S&P 500 Index decreased 1.3% to 4,458.85, the Nasdaq Composite Index dropped 1.9% to 13,761.53, the Dow Jones Industrial Average fell 0.8% to 34,577.28, the 10-year U.S. Treasury rate increased 8bps to 4.26% and the U.S. dollar (as measured by the ICE U.S. Dollar index – DXY) strengthened 0.8%.

European stock markets were mixed with the STOXX 600 Index ending lower on the week and the FTSE 100 Index finishing higher. Both indexes suffered from slowing euro zone and Chinese business activity while the STOXX 600 Index also was stymied by increasing consumer expectations of inflation and the FTSE 100 Index was pressured lower by weakening consumer spending. Uncertainty surrounding this week’s ECB rate decision seemed to increase “risk-off” sentiment in the euro zone while talk of peak rates may have supported stock prices in the UK. The FTSE 100 Index’s larger exposure to U.S. dollar revenues and mining and energy stocks helped it perform better than the STOXX 600 Index. The STOXX 600 Index’s larger exposure to tech stocks also contributed to its underperformance relative to the FTSE 100 Index, with tech stocks hurt by the Chinese government’s ban on the iPhone. For the week, the FTSE 100 Index increased 0.2% to 7,478.19, the STOXX 600 Index fell 0.8% to 454.66, the 10-year Gilt rate was unchanged at 4.43%, the 10-year Bund rate rose 5bps to 2.60%, the British pound and the euro weakened 0.1% and the euro weakened 1.0% and 0.7%, respectively, both versus the U.S. dollar.

This document is not intended for distribution to any other country where such distribution or use would be contrary to local law or regulation. Specifically, this document is not intended for general distribution in the United States or Canada.

Investing in financial markets involves a substantial degree of risk. Nothing described herein is intended to imply that an investment is “safe”, “conservative”, “risk free” or “risk averse”. This document does not consider the specific investment objective, financial situation or particular needs of any potential investor and is intended only for those investors who are capable of understanding the risk of loss of all or a substantial part of their monies. Potential investors in the UK are reminded that they will not benefit from the UK investors compensation scheme.

Nothing contained herein constitutes investment, legal, tax or other advice nor is to be relied upon in making an investment or other decision. No recommendation is made positive or otherwise, regarding individual securities or investments mentioned herein. Any summary list of risk factors does not purport to be a complete enumeration or explanation of the risks involved in an investment in short and leveraged products. Prospective investors must consult with their own legal, tax and financial advisers before deciding to invest.

This document and the information contained herein is intended only for the use of persons (or entities they represent) to whom it has been provided.

Risk Factors

An investment in a GraniteShares short and leveraged exchange traded product (“ETP”) may not be suitable for all investors. They are intended for investors who wish to take a very short-term view on the underlying asset and are not intended as buy and hold investments.

Performance and capital loss: Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results. The value of an investment may go down as well as up and can result in losses, up to and including a total loss of the amount initially invested.

Generic risks: Investments in ETPs involve numerous risks including, among others, company risks, general market risks, credit risks, foreign exchange risks, interest rate risks, geopolitical risks and liquidity risks.

Specific product risks: The Index is constructed to track the performance of an increased (leveraged) and/or short exposure to the underlying asset. A fall (or rise where short and leveraged exposure) in value of the underlying asset can result in a greater reduction in the level of the Index. The Index is designed to do this on a daily basis only which should not be equated with seeking a leveraged position for periods longer than a day. The ETP’s performance over periods longer than one day will not be correlated or symmetrical with the returns of the underlying asset. Potential investors should refer to the section entitled “Risk Factors” and “Economic Overview of the ETP Securities” in the Prospectus relating to the GraniteShares ETPs for further details of these and other risks associated with an investment in short and leveraged ETPs and consult their financial advisers as needed.

Counterparty risk: An investment in a GraniteShares short and leveraged ETP involves counterparty risk. GraniteShares Financial plc has entered into a Swap Agreement with a counterparty, Natixis, that is backed with collateral. Failure of the counterparty to make payments may result in an investment in an ETP suffering a loss.
