

The Long and Short of it – Weekly Update

Week in review:

Major stock indexes moved higher again last week with the Nasdaq Composite Index significantly outperforming the S&P 500 Index and, in particular, the Dow Jones Industrial Average. The week started on a down beat, with stock markets reacting to hawkish Powell comments Sunday and stronger-than-expected service sector growth. Stock indexes, however, moved higher the remainder of the week, predominantly propelled by strong tech stock performance despite markedly higher long-term Treasury rates. While rate cut expectations declined and Treasury rates rose, tech stocks (in particular Nvidia) rose to new highs, bolstered by growing “soft-landing” expectations. The S&P 500 Index closed above 5,000 for the first time. For the week, the S&P 500 Index rose 1.4% to 5,026.61, the Nasdaq Composite Index gained 2.3% to 15,990.66, the Dow Jones Industrial Average was almost unchanged at 38,671.30, the 10-year U.S. Treasury rate rose 16bp to 4.08% and the U.S. dollar (as measured by the ICE U.S. Dollar index – DXY) strengthened 0.2%.

European stock indexes were mixed with the STOXX 600 Index slightly higher and the FTSE 100 Index slightly lower. Index performance suffered from hawkish Fed, BoE and ECB officials’ comments calling for caution with respect to rate cuts. Energy stocks bolstered the performance of both indexes, rising with both sharply higher energy prices and a much better-than-expected BP earnings reports. Luxury stocks also supported indexes, supported by Chinese government plans to support the stock market. Better-than-expected UK economic data (i.e., better-than-expected service sector growth and unemployment rates) contrasted with euro zone data indicating weakness particularly in Germany (i.e., slowing industrial production and demand). 10-year Gilt and Bund rates rose markedly, reflecting reduced rate-cut expectations. For the week the FTSE 100 Index decreased 0.6% to 7,572.58, the STOXX 600 Index increased 0.2% to 48482, the 10-year Gilt rate rose 17bps to 4.09%, the 10-year Bund rate increased 15bps 2.38% and the British pound and the euro were unchanged with respect to the U.S. dollar.

This document is not intended for distribution to any other country where such distribution or use would be contrary to local law or regulation. Specifically, this document is not intended for general distribution in the United States or Canada.

Investing in financial markets involves a substantial degree of risk. Nothing described herein is intended to imply that an investment is “safe”, “conservative”, “risk free” or “risk averse”. This document does not consider the specific investment objective, financial situation or particular needs of any potential investor and is intended only for those investors who are capable of understanding the risk of loss of all or a substantial part of their monies. Potential investors in the UK are reminded that they will not benefit from the UK investors compensation scheme.

No recommendation is made positive or otherwise, regarding individual securities or investments mentioned herein. Any summary list of risk factors does not purport to be a complete enumeration or explanation of the risks involved in an investment in short and leveraged products. Prospective investors must consult with their own legal, tax and financial advisers before deciding to invest.

Risk Factors

An investment in a GraniteShares short and leveraged exchange traded product (“ETP”) may not be suitable for all investors. They are intended for investors who wish to take a very short-term view on the underlying asset and are not intended as buy and hold investments.

Performance and capital loss: Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results. The value of an investment may go down as well as up and can result in losses, up to and including a total loss of the amount initially invested.

Generic risks: Investments in ETPs involve numerous risks including, among others, company risks, general market risks, credit risks, foreign exchange risks, interest rate risks, geopolitical risks and liquidity risks.

Specific product risks: The Index is constructed to track the performance of an increased (leveraged) and/or short exposure to the underlying asset. A fall (or rise where short and leveraged exposure) in value of the underlying asset can result in a greater reduction in the level of the Index. The Index is designed to do this on a daily basis only which should not be equated with seeking a leveraged position for periods longer than a day. The ETP’s performance over periods longer than one day will not be correlated or symmetrical with the returns of the underlying asset. Potential investors should refer to the section entitled “Risk Factors” and “Economic Overview of the ETP Securities” in the Prospectus relating to the GraniteShares ETPs for further details of these and other risks associated with an investment in short and leveraged ETPs and consult their financial advisers as needed.

Counterparty risk: An investment in a GraniteShares short and leveraged ETP involves counterparty risk. GraniteShares Financial plc has entered into a Swap Agreement with a counterparty, Natixis, that is backed with collateral. Failure of the counterparty to make payments may result in an investment in an ETP suffering a loss.
